BATTLE AT FREDERICKTON, Mo.—There had been a large secession force collecting about Pilot Knob, in the S. E. part of Missouri for some time, under Jeff. Thompson. His bands were pillaging the country in every direction, and it was determined to dislodge him. For this purpose a force was ordered from Cape Girardeau consisting of the Missouri 11th; Illinois 17th and 20th; two pieces of cannon and two companies of cavalry. At the same time a force was ordered from Pilot Knob, consisting of Illinois 38th and 41st, Wisconsin 8th, 1st Indiana cavalry, one company Missouri cavalry and six cannon, two 12 inch, which were 24 pounders and 4 six pounders. Saturday evening the commander at Cape Girardeau, sent a messenger to Pilot Knob with instructions. He was taken prisoner by Jeff. Thompson, and he came in possession of the designs of the federal forces. He placed his troops and cannon in position about a mile south of Fredericktown to receive our forces. He then sent for his cavalry, eight miles distant, but they did not arrive in time to take part in the engagement. The rebel forces consisted of 1,700 under Col. Lowe; 2,000 under Jeff. Thompson, 1,500 men from Mississippi, and the riff-raff of the surrounding country, who fought their own battle in their own way—Thompson had nine cannon. Dr. McDowell of St. Louis, was with him as surgeon. Jeff. Thompson's force was 6,000. The federal force from Cape Girardeau, found the rebel force sooner than they expected, but were ready for them. In a few minutes the ball was opened by sending a six pound shot into the brush where the rebels were under cover. The battle became general. Ross' 17th Illinois threw off their coats and knapsacks, and steadily advanced, with hideous yells, and the rebels broke and run for the woods. In crossing the fields to the woods their loss was heavy. The infantry pursued them three or four miles, and the cavalry ten. It was a complete victory. The rebel loss was not less than 100 killed, and many suppose 150. Of their wounded there was little means of ascertaining, as they were carried off the field, but it was probable about the usual proportion to the killed. Three of their cannon were captured and a quantity of their old flintlocks, shot guns &c. Federal loss 27 killed and wounded. The inhabitants of the town were chiefly secessionists, many of the male portion being in the rebel army. Those that remained at home endeavored to lead the union troops into an ambuscade by telling them Thompson was 50 miles distant. In revenge for this, in spite of the efforts of the officers to restrain them, they sacked and pillaged twelve or fifteen stores and dwellings and then destroyed them by fire.

ASPECTS OF THE BATTLE FIELD.—One thing of the dead and wounded of the rebels, were boys from 15 to 18 years old—mere striplings, with the down on their faces, who could not have been disciplined, and who could have had no adequate idea of military duty or the horrors of battle. One of these who had been shot through the thigh and was suffering intensely, cried as a child as I was, and immediately covered his unfortunate companion with their guns. They had all of them useless smooth bored muskets, but of the 400 or 500 prisoners that had been picked up on the battle field not a single one could be called a respectable man. More than half of them were old flint lock squirrel guns that were cross-eyed and less in value. Two or three days before (four of them was shot dead, and the others immediately paroled and allowed to go home. He said after words he thought he had been a fool all the time. He knew nothing about politics. The appearance of these people was amazing. The number of prisoners was twenty-seven. Of the dead on the single one had on any kind of uniform. The wounded were badly clad with the exception of Col. Lowe who was in command of the rebels. He had on a fine uniform. He was very badly wounded in the head. His sword, pistols and sash were taken from him. When the federals retreated they had to cross a marshy field. Several were picked off in this retreat. The prisoners came into town by the third or fourth day. Jeff. Thompson's staff officers came with a flag of truce. Some of these came within the range of the rifles and remained in the field. Most of the killed were shot in the head. This is quite common by the rebels, who use all sorts of guns and rifles, only showing their heads. The wounded were taken care of. We would say in passing that Arkansas pioneers and mountaineers, the good would return having defeated their purposes at Pilot Knob—they had taken no prisoners, given up and shot them down like sheep, killing 600.

CONDITION OF AFFAIRS IN TEXAS.—An English merchant, who has just arrived at Washington from Texas states that great distress exists throughout all portions of that State. At Galveston, when he left provisions of every description commanded the most exorbitant prices. Great alarm existed there respecting the safety of the place, the inhabitants having heard that expeditions were fitting out to operate on the Southern coast. Several prominent gentlemen had subscribed sufficient funds and had despatched Gen. John Snyder and Gen. Sherman to New Orleans to purchase rifled cannon of sufficient calibre to defend the island. As it is now they say the fleet can bombard the town, their cannon being of such a range to keep the vessels off the proper distance.

Joseph Osterman, one of the wealthiest men in Texas, had committed suicide. The present political troubles is the cause assigned.

CONFEDERATION CURRENCY.—A Fairfax county farmer came into Alexandria several days ago to buy flour and salt with the following currency:

Corporation of Warrenton, Va., $1 and 50 cent notes; Town of Leesburg, 12½ cent notes; Manassas Gap Railroad Company, 50 cent notes; J. C. Gunnell of Fairfax, 25 cents; City of Richmond, $2, $1, and 50 cents; Bank of the State of South Carolina $1; Manufacturers' Bank, Richmond, C. W. Purcell, $1; Bank of Winchester, $1; City Bank of Augusta, Ga., $1; Bank of Richmond, $1; Corporation of Charleston, 50 cts. Salt and flour could not be had for the most of it.

This is but a small sample of the issues of every bank, village city or town now in the Confederacy. When resumption comes there will be awful times.

Miscellaneous.

Your readers will be surprised to learn that the wife of that gallant old patriot Commodore Stringham, who did such noble service in command of the federal squadron which captured Forts Clark and Hatteras on the coast of North Carolina, has been busily engaged all the while in conveying information to the rebels. She has, at last, been detected in Louisville, Ky., and is now in the hands of the proper officers at that place.

Your old acquaintance, the notorious Ned McGowan, formerly of California, was arrested in New Orleans on the 11th inst. as a spy. Ned, I have no doubt, is a good secessionist—as honest a one as Jeff. Davis, or the best of them, but for some reason best known to themselves, the authorities of New Orleans suspect, or pretend to suspect him, and have thrown him into prison.

Gen. McClellan's first baby was born to him on Sunday last in Cincinnati. It is a girl and it and the mother are as well as could be expected. His wife, your readers perhaps know, is a daughter of Capt. Randolph of the regular army, and now a Brigadier General with a staff appointment in the army of the Potomac.

Bolivar Heights, where the late fight took place is a small suburb of Harper's Ferry and as its name indicates occupies a commanding position. The Ferry is situated at the confluence of the Shenandoah and Potomac rivers about a mile above and over the river from the present terminus of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, Sandy Hook and directly opposite Maryland Heights. The town is built upon the side of a steep hill. Before the breaking out of the war it was a beautiful and favorite resort for the destruction of the railroad bridge and United States Armory and Rifle Works caused a rapid decline in its population and latterly it has been occupied chiefly as a military outpost by the Union forces.

It is stated that one of the dragoons encamped back of the Capitol the other day bought a watch for $30 from an other soldier of the same company. He afterwards stole the money back and was caught. He has now to march around the encampment every alternate hour, day and night, carrying a heavy ball and chain, and has a large board on his back with the word "thief" painted in red. He is compelled to take this humiliating position for three days, when he is to have his head shaved and be drummed out of camp to the tune of the Rogue's March.

The weather has grown so inclement in the mountains of Western Virginia that many assume that military operations there must cease for the winter. The Confederates seem to have such an idea by recalling Wise and Floyd to assist in quarreling and jealousies in Richmond, and by ordering Lee to take command of Johnston's division in Kentucky.

Rosecrans and Rosecrans, on the Federal side will be reinforced on the contrary that Indiana regiments are to be withdrawn for service in Kentucky where doubtless the winter campaign will be active one.

them; but another mode, which is apt to be more materially the cause of the rebels, is resorted to by the Secession sympathizers. They endeavor to draw a distinction between the Administration and the Government. They claim to be devoted Union men, but assert that there is a political difference between them and the Administration, which is their apology for their want of sympathy with the cause of the Government, and their disposition to dissent, and oppose its measures, and misrepresent its motives and its policy. They are aping their rebel friends at the South, by applying every opprobrious epithet upon the President and the persons composing his Cabinet; they repeat the stale abstract arguments of last Fall's campaign against Republicanism, appeal to Democrats to rally under their banner and seek to stir up a spirit of strife and rebellion against the acts of the ruling power. Is it anything less than treason, when the country is struggling in the throes of a revolution, and the Government is putting forth every endeavor, straining every nerve and fibre to establish the great principle of self-government, and to maintain the rich inheritance of the Revolutionary sires, to prate about 'laying down our arms,' to speak in a tone of mockery about every failure of success on the part of the Federal troops, to howl over the assumption and the despotism of the 'Lincoln Government,' and to try in every other possible manner to paralyze the arm of the Government? We think not. There are but two positions for the Government to take. The one is to be a loyal citizen and supporter of the Government, the other to be—a traitor."

The Oregon Democrat gives our neighbor of the Advocate the credit of appointing the late Thanksgiving Day. The Advocate does many good things, but in this case he must divide the honors with several editors. The truth is, there was a disposition among our citizens to observe the day set apart by Gov. Downey and Gov. Turney for Thanksgiving, and the suggestion that they should do so by several editors, was readily acquiesced in.

We hope, hereafter, that whoever may be Governor of Oregon, he will follow the indications of public opinion, and appoint, as is done in other States, a day for general Thanksgiving.

The treasonable poetry, we copy from the Democrat, is believed to have been written in this city.

The Christian Advocate says: "Lieutenant John Adair, U. S. A., we learn, has resigned." It is only a few month's since, that he graduated at West Point. Besides being disloyal, such conduct shows but indifferent gratitude, to say nothing of justice. Such examples are not new; they are found far back in the dim past. But they are not, therefore, the less abhorrent.

The Federal glory wanes

Thus ends the strife—the die is cast—
The doom is fixed—redemption's past—
A nation's destiny
A thousand nymphs and virgins weep
A thousand bootless widows weep
The dread fatality

NOTES.—"Non sicut ibi."—Gen. Johnston, of Virginia. He, on the morning of the battle, dropped down on the railroad train, with 21,000 or 30,000 men, from Winchester, a distance of twenty-five or thirty miles from Manassas, and between 11 and 12 o'clock, was in the thickest of the fight. He led the left wing of the Confederate army and pursued the flying fugitives for several miles.

†"The Hampton Legion."—The flower of South Carolina, led by Beauregard. This splendid Legion began the fight. They charged and drove the enemy at the very outset.—South Carolina was first to resent Northern aggression both in the council chamber and in the field.

ROUTE TO SALMON RIVER.—The Mountaineer speaks of the importance of opening a road on the nearest good route from the Dalles to Salmon River. This is very important. Public opinion is divided between making the road pass through the Grande Ronde and the Powder River valleys. There is good country on both these points—Grande Ronde, the most beautiful, and Powder River Valley the most fertile. There should be good crossings of the rivers selected, and ferries established. We anticipate a tremendous rush of miners to the mines next Spring, and they will want to go by the nearest and best route. We have heard some of our Valley men say that they had as soon try the pass over the Cascades by the old Barlow Road, in February, as in April, and they mean to try it. Have a care!

AFTER THE NASHVILLE.—The Government have dispatched from the port of New York the armed steamers Alabama and Augusta in pursuit of the rebel steamship Nashville, which, as already stated, ran the blockade at Charleston on the 19th instant, and is now on her way to France or England, with Messrs. Mason and Slidell (Minister Plenipotentiary) on board. The steamer Connecticut, it is said, will also be sent in pursuit. The Augusta and Alabama left on Wednesday night, and the Connecticut the next day. The chase will be an interesting one, but as the Nashville is a very fast vessel her pursuers will have need of every inch of sail and every pound of steam to come up with her. The Nashville has had five days' start, but the greater distance she has to run will almost counterbalance that, and make the race very nearly an even one.—N. Y. Express.

A dispatch received at Sacramento says that the Nashville was taken.

CHARLESTON BLOCKADE.—A letter from an officer of the Roanoke says—"Charleston is now effectually blockaded, almost waterproof. The Roanoke lies in the middle, and on each side are the Vanderbilt and steamer Flag—the former guarding the northern and the latter the southern one. We are about five miles from Fort Sumter, lying at near by thirty feet of water. This is as near as we can go in, on account of the bar. The steamer Montecello arrived last night, and will take part in blockading the place.

have already gone into Russia with orders for breadstuffs. So Russia clearly has no such design as the Eastern papers attribute to her, and the purchases now being made on orders from English corn merchants, have no other end in view than supplying their French neighbors at a profit.

John Whitney, an old resident of Marion county, went to Champoeg on the 26th to sell his produce, and left for home. Next morning he was found dead in the road about three miles from town. He had been drinking, and is supposed to have fallen from his wagon in a fit. The team was found near by.

CIRCUIT COURT.—State of Oregon vs. Fred Hast. Indictment for setting up gambling device in the El Dorado Saloon. Jury trial—verdict, not guilty.

Woo Ching vs. Young Kun. Jury trial now in progress, for an alleged debt. The examination of one of the Celestial witnesses yesterday afternoon, kept the Court, jury, and a host of spectators in a continuous roar of laughter. The case will be continued this morning. Any one troubled with the blues, would do well to visit the Court-room.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Two individuals, who had partaken a little too much of the ardent on Thanksgiving Day, thereby violating Ordinance No. 10, were taken before the Recorder and fined five dollars each.

COMMON COUNCIL.—No quorum present last evening.

Thanksgiving was very well noticed in our city.

ARRIVAL OF THE JULIA.—Tracy & Co. received last night, by the Julia, over $50,000, in gold dust. A large number of miners came down, and they also had well-filled purses. News from the mines is still encouraging, though mining operations are somewhat retarded by the severity of the Winter.

ARRIVAL OF BARK SAMUEL MERRITT.—The bark Samuel Merritt, Capt. Williams, left San Francisco 7th inst., and was seven days to the Columbia River Bar. She experienced very rough weather. The following is her list of consignees:

Illo & Lewis, 437 pkgs.; Hoffgren & Shindler, 82; Treadwell & Hustler, 8; Richards & McClinton, 1297; Ladd, Tod & Co., 950; Smith & Davis, 86; Ainslie & Co., 519; Miller, Sels & Seller & Co., 713; P. McQuade, 6; H. Rosenblatt, 31; Poston & Cabot, 11; D. Simon, 20; R. Pittock, 284; E. Milwain, 13; Chapman, Warner & Co., 14; M. C. L. M. Starr, 578; Diamond P. & S., 110; H. Lee & Co., 1; Myers & Co., 222; Bloch, Miller & Co., 44; Lee & Co., 1; Snyder & Co., 12; W. H. Harris, 22; Capt. Connell, Diamond T. P., 6; Hamilton & Malnn, 231; Wm. Rose, 460; Knapp, Burrell & Co., 5; E. J. Northrop & Co., 12; Blumauer & Rosenblatt, 44; J. Kamm, 10; H. M. & C. J. Taylor, 3; Diamond S. A. S., 70. Total, 4,000 pkgs.

SILSON RIVER.—The richness of these mines is placed beyond doubt; but their late discovery in the Fall, the cold weather, and lack of supplies there, will compel most of the miners to come down to the Valley to Winter. Our last accounts represented the miners coming this way; while it was a fact that new comers, disregarding the cold, the impossibility of getting in the Winter, were coming into the mines. There must be a great deal of suffering in the Salmon river mines, the present Winter. The Mountaineer mentions that recently a gentleman bound for the Dalles carried thirty-seven horses that had been abandoned by the owners to perish in the snow, on the mountains this side of Salmon River.

The impudence of Curry by his "honest," "unreserved" friend, Prosch, would seem to justify a little "kicking." It is natural to all animals, under such circumstances.

FOR NEW PRICES RIVER!

THE OREGON STEAM NAVIGATION CO.'S STEAMERS will run on the COLUMBIA RIVER as follows:

Coughs.—The sudden change of our climate is a source of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFLICTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, for the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat, be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of Europe, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his sphere in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary M.D. cum laude degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for many extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become great an expert, that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers, in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of his paper. Persons not wishing to absent time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon its victim a existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable agency to health, as nothing else in the dread catalogue of human evils is so destructive: a drain upon the system—drawing its victims through a few years of suffering down to the untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, to be a prey to consumption and a premature death—to be the victim of an early death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the removal of this vile practice, my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice in San Francisco, with full directions sent to any part of the States, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, 144 Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the late victims of the pangs of disease, who, having received their great health, and impelled by gratitude, came forward of their own free and remedial agent, and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The declarations of these gentlemen unprecedently command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted:

Gentlemen.—The undersigned, desirous of assisting those who may be unfortunate enough to be afflicted as he has been, where a permanent relief of their sufferings is obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the restoration and recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of misguided passion in youth; oppressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon him in the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of a most important—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in some instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their tortures; and being told that as the nature of my disease being principally confined to the blood, there would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, enlisted upon Dr. Czapkay's skill, and examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and loins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous irritability of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the dark forebodings and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of energy in the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having entered under the doctor. I felt as if inspired by a new life—the future, but a short time ago I contemplated, to end by a painful burial. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that any one under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

R. F. P.

State of California, County of San Francisco:

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed.

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 9, 1856.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have taken the last of your medicine and do not think I shall require more, as I feel very well except that I have not yet got my strength yet, but soon will with the blessing of God. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called on your institute, with my constitution as I thought entirely ruined, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and fret at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you can judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from all symptoms, and the removal of those offensive humors from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the eruption of those emissions, which you said were the principal cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which was the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for I did not think I ever got my strength. I feel as well as any person I ever was.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over and above what I think my self cheaply cured. If you think I can be benefited, you may put this letter in the paper, as I believe in gratefully yours. THOMAS LYNCH.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—I prompted by an honest feeling of gratitude, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves publication, not only as an act of selfish gratification to myself, but as an act of benevolence to the community also. About two years ago, I received a wound, the causes unknown to me, was seized with a fever, which, owing to my inability to meet the expense consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and to the disagreement which I met with on attempting to seek some such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in a state of delirium, thrown down to the ground without the slightest exertion, and although insensible to the agonies I was undergoing, the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon death as a wound render assistance or shelter me from the storm. While in this state and having previously tested the sweets of life, I once more was led to the path of seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation of a friend, went to Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him, of my inability to meet any final duty to reward him for his services, and of my wish, however, he at once undertook my case, and through the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the benefit I have received, and yet conscious of my indebtedness to him, I feel it due to myself and all afflicted, to make this statement, that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

MEYER THOMAS.
